

Remote Hands service

Flexential Remote Hands offers basic onsite assistance to colocation customers that require physical help for ad-hoc or scheduled requests. Flexential technicians will use their eyes, ears, and hands to report and provide feedback to the customer.

Remote Hands includes basic phone assistance, verbal confirmations, and basic physical assistance as provided by Flexential service support staff. Remote Hands is meant for customer requests that do not take an extensive amount of time to complete. Typically, a Remote Hands request should take 60 minutes or less to complete.

- High priority Remote Hands requests are reserved for instances when service is unavailable, or performance is materially degraded.
- Medium priority Remote Hands requests are for instances when service is available, but performance might be degraded.
- Low priority Remote Hands requests are for instances when service is operational. This includes scheduled maintenance, installations and decommissions, rack and stack, visual inspections, escorting vendors, tape rotations, etc.

Remote Hands events

Remote Hands service events include:

- Power cycle of customer-owned equipment
- Swapping or pulling media/hard drives
- Re-run or move of cables
- Cable tracing
- Providing a dedicated escort for a visitor
- Un-boxing and racking a server
- Un-racking a server and placing it on the loading dock

Contracted or ad hoc requests that take under 60 minutes to complete will be handled as soon as possible. If it is determined that the request will take longer than 60 minutes then we ask that the work be scheduled two weeks in advance to allow for appropriate scheduling and staffing.

Event time calculation

Ad hoc events will be priced at a rate of $220/hour (1 hr. minimum per event). Additional time required on the same event will be billed in 15-minute increments.

Upon receiving a request that falls under the category of Remote Hands services, Flexential will inform the customer that charges may result. After being informed that charges may result, if a customer does not wish to proceed with the Remote Hands request, they should contact Flexential Support immediately to avoid charges.

Flexential also offers Remote Hands services at a discount if added to contract and are available in 1, 5 or 10-hour blocks. Please reach out to your account team for pricing.
