

HIPAA gap analysis and assessment

Translating HIPAA requirements to pinpoint organizational risk and establish an integrated security enforcement strategy and plan is perplexing on a good day. It helps to have a partner who can navigate the intersection of IT security and regulatory compliance with ease.

Flexential has a strong record of guiding organizations like yours through all stages of the security lifecycle to position them for compliance with HIPAA. Our consultative approach allows us to dig deep to help uncover inadequate controls, potential threats and applicable requirements.

With extensive multi-platform management and compliance-remediation experience, we'll deliver a thorough assessment informed with real-world perspectives. Our experts identify control gaps and specific risk impacts as part of developing a proactive compliance plan for successful remediation – complete with recommended actions, realistic timelines and projected necessary resources.

Flexential has helped varied organizations – from hospital systems to large corporations – improve infrastructure security for HIPAA compliance. We are also among a select number of companies worldwide approved by HITRUST as a CSF Assessor.
